

Summary of Use Restrictions

Dear Customer,

The following summary is to inform you about the terms of the license agreement that covers the air egress liner now featured in FLEXcon® BUSart™ AIREgrs, FLEXcon® BUSmark® AIREgrs, FLEXcon® HX5000, and FLEXcon® FLEXmark® Promotional Advertising Films series. The license allows you to sell the FLEXcon® BUSart™ AIREgrs, FLEXcon® BUSmark® AIREgrs, FLEXcon® HX5000, and FLEXcon® FLEXmark® Promotional Advertising Films series all over the world within certain fields of use and use restrictions. The following is a summary of the rights that are and are not granted by the license. To view the complete license agreement, including the definitions of the terms used below, please see the link at the bottom of this page.

By purchasing FLEXcon® BUSart™ AIREgrs, FLEXcon® BUSmark® AIREgrs, FLEXcon® HX5000 series, and FLEXcon® FLEXmark® Promotional Advertising Films you agree to abide by the following field of use and use restrictions.

The license is generally limited to pressure sensitive adhesive (PSA) products used as a Large Format Graphic film. Specifically, the license grants rights to use any Graphic PSA product falling within Licensed Fields A, B, or C as set forth in the license agreement, which include Graphic PSAs that are:

Wider than 24 inches (conversion to shapes or designs of any width and form is possible)

Made with adhesive layer fully in contact with the release liner (nothing in between)

Made of monomeric vinyl film, cast vinyl film, or films of any color, printed or unprinted

The license does not grant rights to use the release liner in connection with:

Retro-reflective Films

Paint Replacement Films sold for OEM application (aftermarket uses arc permitted)

Paint Protection Films

Wood and Fabric Replacement Films

Electronic Display Protection Films

Solar Control Window Films

Safety and Security Window Films

Pressure Sensitive Adhesive Labelstock

Foam substrates

Printing Plate Mounting Tapes
